

CAIIS
2022 PATHWAYS
VIRTUAL
PEDAGOGY
SUMMIT

Indigenizing Curriculum

Plenary Topics:

- What is at Stake: Student Stories
- Tribal Relations and Curriculum Development
- Place-Based Curriculum Development: Indigenizing Curriculum at the Local level
- Indians at the iSchool: Planting Seeds in THIS NATIVE LAND
- Seattle Community College: Native Nation Engagement Challenges

Friday April 8, 2022

9 A.M. to 4 P.M.

- Lynn Palmanteer-Holder (Colville Tribe): Director State Board of Community and Technical Colleges
- Jennifer LeBret (Spokane Tribe): Chair WA State Native American Education Advisory Committee to the Office of Native Education
- Cheryl A. Metoyer (Eastern Band, Cherokee) Associate Professor Emerita, Information School-Founding Director, Native North American Indigenous Knowledge (NNAIK) Initiative
- Maya Esquivido (Nor Rel Muk Wintu | Hupa): Jaime Cardenas-Dean Division of Arts, Humanities, and Social Sciences and Tracy Lai-Seattle Central College

Live Streaming on Zoom

<https://washington.zoom.us/j/96757494269>

See you there!